PERTINENT INFORMATION To: SC Rome From: SC Brussels  1. The following article appeared on page five of the "Continental Daily Mail" of 21 November 1946. "Exiles Plot For war With Russia" by Special Correspondent "Rome--: Political refugees from the Soviet bloc of states, including notorious fugitives on the war-criminal lists of Central European countries, have set up an international organisation extending to every European capital, with headquarters here. ..... The existence of this group was revealed by Ferdinand DURCANSKY, "foreign minister" of the so-called Slovak Republic which, as an ally of Hitler, declared war on Russia, Poland, Britain and the United States. DURCANSKY has been living in Rome without a passport or visa, but nevertheless has made several trips across the frontier to France without legal documents. His goal HE said, is to "see the world finish the war they have only begun, by declaring war immediately on the Soviet Union." Marshal Stalin, he said, is the chief war criminal alive today. Together with DURCANSKY, the chief leadership of the organization rests with Pavelich and Vladimir Matčhek, exiled leader of the Croatian Peasant Party and former Vice-Premier of Yugoslavia, now in the United States. .....
